known as Limestone) as the future capital of the colony. It was declared a township in 1850.

The Cleveland area was named by Captain James Cook in 1770. It is unclear whether he was honouring the Duke of Cleveland or John Cleveland, then secretary of the Admiralty. Cleveland is the main access point for ferries to North Stradbroke Island. To the south is Redland Bay which is the starting point for ferry services across to Macleay, Lamb, Russell and Karragarra Islands. A market garden area, Redland City Council hosts a Strawberry Festival on the first weekend each year in September.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Information we collect: Our school collects and records personal, sensitive and health information from students and parents/guardians before and during the course of a student’s enrolment at our school.

Purpose of collection: The primary purpose of collecting and recording this information is to enable the provision of quality Catholic education. In addition, some of the information we collect and record is to satisfy the school’s legal obligations, particularly to enable the school to discharge its duty of care to students and parents/guardians. This information may also be used for appropriate parish purposes.

Disclosure of information: This information may be disclosed by us for administrative and educational purposes to others including, but not limited to, personnel within Brisbane Catholic Education Centre, other systemic schools, medical practitioners and people providing services to schools, such as specialist visiting teachers and consultants.

Our privacy position: Brisbane Catholic Education is bound by the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000, and has adopted the ten (10) National Privacy Principles. A privacy statement detailing Brisbane Catholic Education’s practices and procedures for the use and management of the personal, sensitive and health information it collects and records can be accessed on the Brisbane Catholic Education website – www.bne.catholic.edu.au. Alternatively a hard copy of the statement may be provided on request.

Information required: If we do not obtain the personal, sensitive or health information referred to above, we may not be able to enrol or continue to enrol your son/daughter. By completing and submitting the school enrolment form you have confirmed your understanding of and agreement with the above.
